

Consequences for Inappropriate Behavior
All bus safety violations will be coded Bus Misbehavior

Students choose whether or not to follow the rules. If a student chooses to break the rules, the consequences are as follows:

- 1st report of misconduct = verbal warning from the driver
- 2nd report of misconduct = written notice or a phone call to the parent or guardian, from the Assistant Principal
- 3rd report of misconduct = 3 day suspension from the bus
- 4th report of misconduct = 5 day suspension from the bus
- 5th report of misconduct = 10 day suspension from the bus
- 6th report of misconduct = loss of bus privileges, including activity buses and fieldtrips, for the remainder of the school year

The following behaviors will result in an automatic suspension from the bus and may also result in a suspension from school:

- fighting
- tampering with safety equipment
- interfering with the safe operation of the bus
- profanity / indecent exposure or threatening remarks
- opening or leaving through the emergency door unless required by a true emergency
- damaging the school bus. Damaging a school bus will also result in a minimum $40.00 fine. This fine must be paid before a student is allowed to ride the bus again.

Family members and guardians are reminded that it is unlawful for non-riders, including family members or guardians to step onto a bus.

If a student is suspended off of the bus, it is the parents' responsibility to get their child to school. The principal/CEO must follow attendance policy and law if a child misses school.
